

VFH Grants Awarded: 2001

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
1/4/2001	Museum of the Confederacy	Richmond, VA	The Debate Over Black Confederates -- Then and Now	$2,500.00	Funds to support two lectures and a panel discussion on the role of African-American soldiers in the Confederacy -- and on the controversy surrounding their involvement, both during the war and in the present day.
1/29/2001	Gunston Hall Plantation	Mason Neck, VA	Liberty Lecture Series 2001	$2,300.00	Funds to support a 4-part lecture-discussion series on the subject of "Equal Protection and The Law," focusing in particular on the application of the Bill of Rights to the states through the 14th amendment as well as rights of the disabled, women's rights, and the rights of Native Americans.
1/30/2001	Louisa County Historical Society	Louisa, VA	Historical Societies of the Piedmont Annual Conference, 2001	$1,500.00	Funds to support the annual conference of the Historical Societies of the Virginia Piedmont, hosted this year in Louisa County
1/31/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Virginia Indian Nations Summit, 2001	$2,500.00	Funds to support the first annual Virginia Indian Nations Summit on Higher Education, in which representation of the eight state-recognized tribes in Virginia and members of the faculty of Virginia Tech will discuss the future of the university's new American Indian Studies Program and its relationship to the Virginia Indian community.
2/28/2001	Chincoteague Island Library	Chincoteague, VA	Since Sherlock Holmes: A Hundred Years of Detective Fiction	$2,200.00	Funds to support a 5-part book discussion series on classic works of detective fiction.
2/28/2001	Virginia Film Foundation	Charlottesville, VA	Lafayette	$2,400.00	Funds to support a continuation of the planning and script development process for a public television series on the life, times, and significance of the Marquis de Lafayette.
3/2/2001	Albemarle County Historical Society	Charlottesville, VA	From Rockfish to Edwardsville: From Slavery to Freedom	$3,000.00
3/2/2001	Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum, Inc.	Lynchburg, VA	The Legacy of Anne Spencer	$3,000.00	Publication of a 64-page booklet on the life and influence of Anne Spencer.
3/2/2001	Appalshop	Whitesburg, KY	From the Holler to the Hood	$8,700.00	Funds to support pre-production costs associated with the creation of a one-hour documentary film for television, examining the impact of the prison industry in rural SW Virginia, Wise County in particular, as well as the nationwide controversy surrounding the use of prisons as a solution to the need for rural economic development.
3/2/2001	Appomattox Regional Library System	Hopewell, VA	Virginia Authors Series	$1,250.00	Funds to support a series of six lecture-discussion programs featuring Virginia authors to be held at three separate locations served by the Appomattox Regional Library.
3/2/2001	Association for the	Blacksburg, VA	Bacon's Castle	$3,000.00	Research on the African-American history associated with Bacon's

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
	Preservation of Virginia Antiquities		Research		Castle, designed to broaden interpretation at the site.
3/2/2001	Bland County School Board	Rocky Gap, VA	Dry Fork	$3,000.00	Research, interviews, and further development of an existing website on "Dry Fork," an African-American agricultural community in Bland County
3/2/2001	City of Petersburg	Petersburg, VA	Petersburg African-American History Highlights	$3,000.00	Funds to support research leading to the creation of a 44-page booklet on Petersburg's African-American history.
3/2/2001	College of William and Mary	Williamsburg, VA	Green v. New Kent County: Where Desegregation Became Integration	$3,000.00	Funds to assist with the creation of a lesson plan for high school teachers focusing on the 1966 Supreme Court case, Green v. New Kent County, Virginia, in which the Court declared that it was the duty of local school boards to eliminate all vestiges of state-imposed segregation, thus changing the role of government from prohibiting segregation to requiring integration in public schools.
3/2/2001	Community Involvement Awareness, Inc.	Staunton, VA	Historical Sketches of African-American Churches in Augusta County	$2,700.00	Funds to support publication of a book on the histories of African-American churches in the Staunton/Augusta County area.
3/2/2001	Corporation for Jefferson's Poplar Forest	Forest, VA	Slave Life at Poplar Forest: Docent Training	$3,000.00	Funds to support a comprehensive review of how slavery has been and is currently being interpreted at Poplar Forest -- Thomas Jefferson's second home in Bedford County -- and the development of a new approach to this interpretation, based on the contributions of a group of scholars and other experts.
3/2/2001	County of Spotsylvania	Spotsylvania, VA	Stubb School Interpretation	$3,000.00	Funds to support development of a brochure and the installation of interpretive displays on the history of African-American education at Stubb School, a one-room building that has been relocated to the center of Spotsylvania where it will be open to the public as an educational exhibit.
3/2/2001	Duke University	Durham, NC	The Old German Baptist Brethren and Agricultural Change in Franklin County, Virginia	$7,700.00	Funds to support collection and transcription of oral history interviews documenting the economic and cultural pressures affecting traditional agriculture in Franklin County, VA, as it is practiced by members of the Old Order German Baptist Brethren Community. Our funds will also support at least two public presentations of the results of this documentation and research.
3/2/2001	George Mason University	Fairfax, VA	Separate and Unequal	$3,000.00	Funds to support an oral history project focusing on the experiences of African-Americans who attended school in Buckingham County, Virginia during the height of Jim Crow segregation.
3/2/2001	Gloucester 350th Celebration	Gloucester, VA	African-American History in Gloucester County	$1,500.00	Funds to support printing and related costs in connection with a driving tour of African-American historic sites in Gloucester County.
3/2/2001	Hanover County Black	Ashland, VA	African-American	$3,000.00	Funds to support research including oral histories related to the

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
	Heritage Society, Inc.		Education in Hanover County		educational experiences of African-Americans in Hanover County, resulting in an exhibit and permanent archive.
3/2/2001	Historic Crab Orchard Museum and Pioneer Park, Inc.	Tazewell, VA	An Untold Story: The Black Heritage of Tazewell County	$3,000.00	Funds to assist with publication of a book about the African-American history of Tazewell County and its impact on the broader history of Southwest Virginia.
3/2/2001	Historic Smithfield	Blacksburg, VA	The History of Slave Life at Smithfield	$3,000.00	Funds to support research, leading to the creation of an interpretive brochure, docent training, and a community forum on the history of slave life at Smithfield Plantation, designed to improve overall interpretation at the site.
3/2/2001	James Madison's Montpelier	Orange, VA	The Gilmore Cabin and Its Legacy	$2,500.00	Funds to support oral history documentation and interpretive planning in preparation for the development of a permanent exhibit on the life of a post-bellum African-American family in Orange County -- a former slave (George Gilmore), his wife and children who owned land that once belonged to James Madison's great-nephew.
3/2/2001	James River Blues Society	Lynchburg, VA	Virginia Blues: Interpretive Brochure	$2,600.00	Funds to support production of a large-format brochure and map and a related highway historical marker in Lynchburg focusing on Virginia's contributions to the early development of the Blues as a distinctive American musical tradition.
3/2/2001	Legacy Museum of African American History	Lynchburg, VA	African-American Education in Central Virginia	$3,000.00	Funds to support production of an exhibit and related catalogue on the history of African-American education in Lynchburg and the surrounding counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, and Campbell.
3/2/2001	Longwood University	Farmville, VA	Slave Dwellings in the Virginia Landscape	$3,000.00	Funds to support research and photo-documentation leading to the publication of a book on slave dwellings throughout Virginia.
3/2/2001	Longwood University	Farmville, VA	Civil Rights in Farmville and Prince Edward County	$3,000.00	Funds to support an oral history project designed to capture the memories of people involved in the Civil Rights movement in Farmville and Prince Edward County.
3/2/2001	Loudoun Heritage Farm Museum	Leesburg, VA	Slavery in Loudoun County	$3,000.00	Funds to support an exhibit and related public lecture -- the first in a series -- focusing on slavery in Loudoun County.
3/2/2001	Loudoun Heritage Farm Museum	Leesburg, VA	Rural Oral History	$9,300.00
3/2/2001	Loudoun Museum	Leesburg, VA	African-American History in Loudoun County	$3,000.00	Research leading to the development of a walking tour on the African-American history of Loudoun County.
3/2/2001	Mariners' Museum	Newport News, VA	Investigating the Transatlantic Slave Trade	$3,000.00	Funds to support the development and implementation of an outreach program -- intended for school and community audiences -- in conjunction with creation of a new exhibit on the Middle Passage and the Transatlantic Slave Trade.
3/2/2001	Piedmont Virginia Community College	Charlottesville, VA	African-American Communities in	$3,000.00	Funds to support an oral history project involving scholars, community leaders, and adult-education students in an effort to

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
			Charlottesville/Albemarle County		document and preserve the African-American history of Charlottesville and Albemarle County.
3/2/2001	Piedmont Virginia Community College	Charlottesville, VA	African-American Communities in Charlottesville/Albemarle County	$3,000.00
3/2/2001	Sergeant Kirkland's Museum and Historical Society	Spotsylvania, VA	Slave Revolt on the Ship Creole	$3,000.00	Funds to support printing costs for a book-length publication on the history of a largely unknown slave revolt on the ship Creole, a Richmond vessel carrying slaves from Eastern and Central Virginia who were given freedom by British authorities in Nassau following the revolt.
3/2/2001	The Providence Foundation	Charlottesville, VA	Symposium Commemorating the Wall of Separation	$4,400.00
3/2/2001	Thomas Nelson Community College	Hampton, VA	The Annual Gathering of the Moses	$400.00	Funds to support research focusing on the history of an annual gathering of members of the Grand United Order of Moses, an African-American fraternal order and mutual benefit society, which met in Charlotte County each year from 1904 until the early 1970s.
3/2/2001	University of Virginia	Charlottesville, VA	Bright Leaf: The Tobacco Culture of the Old Belt of Virginia	$10,000.00
3/2/2001	University of Virginia	Charlottesville, VA	Proffit Historic District On-Line Research Archive	$3,000.00	Funds to support development of an on-line research archive and database related to the history of Proffit, and African-American community in northern Albemarle County.
3/2/2001	University of Virginia's College at Wise	Wise, VA	The African-American History of Clinchco, Virginia	$3,000.00	Research and oral history interviews leading to the production of an exhibit on the history of the African- American community in and around the coal-mining town of Clinchco, Virginia.
3/2/2001	Valentine Richmond History Center	Richmond, VA	Richmond's African-American History	$3,000.00	Funds to support research, a publication, and docent training which involves lectures by scholars of Richmond's history, leading to the development of a tour of African- American historic sites in the city.
3/2/2001	Virginia Historical Society	Richmond, VA	Reading the Word: The Church and African-American Education	$3,000.00	Funds to support production of a traveling exhibit and related publication on the relationship between the church and education in African-American communities.
3/2/2001	Virginia Museum of Transportation	Roanoke, VA	Chauncey Spencer's Life and Contributions to Aviation	$3,000.00	Funds to support production and distribution of a documentary video on the life and contributions of Chauncey Spencer, a pioneer in aviation whose achievements helped to open the field to other African-Americans in the mid-20th c.
3/2/2001	Virginia State University	Petersburg, VA	The Bojangles Exhibit	$3,000.00	Funds to support the creation of an interpretive exhibit on the life and legacy in dance of Virginia native Bill "Bojangles" Robinson.
3/2/2001	Virginia Tech	Critz, VA	The Slave Graveyard Research Project	$3,000.00	Funds to support an archeological survey and production of a map, brochure, and exhibit signage focusing on a slave graveyard located on the Reynolds Homestead property, as part of a larger effort to enhance the interpretation of African-American history at this site.

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
3/2/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Christiansburg Institute: A Model of African-American Heritage	$3,000.00	Funds to support research and construction of a scale model of Christiansburg Institute, which provided 100 years of education for African-American children in SW Virginia from emancipation to integration. The exhibit will be housed in the renovated Edgar A. Long building on the C.I. campus.
3/2/2001	Virginia Trust for Historic Preservation	Alexandria, VA	A Study of Slavery at the Lee-Fendall House	$1,500.00	Funds to support research and documentation of slave life at the Lee-Fendall House, which served as home for generations of the Lee family from 1785-1903.
3/2/2001	Waterford Foundation	Waterford, VA	The African-American Experience in Waterford	$2,900.00	Funds to support research, design, and production of a booklet on the African-American history of Waterford Village, designed to complement a variety of living history and other programs currently underway at this Loudoun County site.
3/2/2001	WVTF Public Radio	Roanoke, VA	Christiansburg Institute Radio Documentaries	$3,000.00	Funds to support a series of four radio documentaries on the "life, death, and re-birth" of Christiansburg Institute, an institution that served African-American students in Southside Virginia for 100 years beginning in 1866 and has re-emerged as a center of educational and cultural life in Montgomery County.
3/2/2001	WVTF Public Radio	Roanoke, VA	Eugenics--Radio Series	$3,350.00	Funds to support a series of radio documentary programs, followed by an hour-long "call-in" show on the history and long-term impact of Virginia's involuntary human sterilization program and its relationship to the inter- national Eugenics movement.
3/12/2001	Eastern Shore Public Library	Accomack, VA	Digital Library Planning	$2,400.00	Funds to support research toward the creation of a comprehensive catalogue of materials on the Ecological History of Virginia's Eastern Shore, which is being developed as the first step toward creating a digital library on the same subject.
3/13/2001	Westmoreland County Museum and Library	Montross, VA	Seventeenth Century Potter Morgan Jones	$2,100.00	Funds to support an exhibit and accompanying series of lectures on the work of Morgan Jones, a seventeenth century Virginia potter, whose kiln was excavated in Westmoreland County in 1973 and remains the oldest documented site of Colonial-era pottery making in the state.
3/16/2001	Cave Canem	Charlottesville, VA	Anthology of Black Southern Poetry	$2,250.00	Our funds in this project supported planning and development of an anthology of Black Southern Poetry.
3/16/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	A Place at the Table	$2,500.00	Funds to support a one-day program celebrating Southern food, literature, and culture, featuring well-known writers -- Ernest Gaines, John Egerton, and Nikki Giovanni -- and experts in Southern food ways.
4/13/2001	Steamboat Era Museum	Irvington, VA	Steamboat Heritage of the Chesapeake Bay	$1,300.00	Funds to support planning for an oral history project to document the economic and cultural history and legacy of steamboat transport and commerce on the Chesapeake Bay.

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
4/23/2001	Archipelago Publishers, Inc.	Charlottesville, VA	Institutional Memory	$1,450.00	This project allowed Archipelago editor Katherine McNamara to capture some very significant interviews with three important figures connected with Shocken Books in New York.
4/24/2001	Eastern Shore of Virginia Historical Society	Onancock, VA	Regional Council Planning	$2,400.00	Our funds in this project supported administrative costs associated with founding and establishing the Eastern Shore Regional Humanities Council.
5/14/2001	Fredericksburg Area Museum and Cultural Center	Fredericksburg, VA	A River Runs Through It	$1,750.00	Funds to support research, planning, and design for an exhibit on the history of Fredericksburg that uses the Rappahannock River as its organizing theme.
5/24/2001	Mid-Atlantic Arts Foundation	Baltimore, MD	Maritime Culture of the Mid-Atlantic Region	$500.00	This grant supported the participation of a Virginia Folklife Scholar, Charlie Petrocci, in a series of meetings to begin planning for the 2004 Smithsonian Folklife Festival, which will focus on the Maritime Culture of the Mid Atlantic Region.
6/1/2001	Archipelago Publishers, Inc.	Charlottesville, VA	Institutional Memory	$9,000.00	Our funds supported a series of three library-based conversations about changes in the book publishing industry, and the related creation of an electronic book based on a series of articles on the same topic.
6/1/2001	Birthplace of Country Music Alliance	Bristol, TN	Smithsonian Folklife Festival Research 2003	$10,000.00	Our funds in this project supported research and fieldwork focusing on the musical and cultural traditions of SW Virginia and the Central Appalachian Region, in preparation for the 2003 Smithsonian Folklife Festival, which featured Appalachia, Scotland, and Mali.
6/1/2001	Christiansburg Institute	Christiansburg, VA	The Edgar A. Long Papers	$9,800.00	Funds to support research and editorial work leading to the publication (in book form) of selections from the papers of Edgar A. Long, who served as Principal of Christiansburg Institute from 1906-1924. Long's writings are extraordinary, and important in their own right; but also because of the leading role CI played in the education of African American students in SW Virginia.
6/1/2001	College of William and Mary	Williamsburg, VA	In Our Own Words	$8,000.00	Funds to assist in the completion of a 3-part documentary project, resulting in a publication, CD-ROM, and video, based on oral histories collected from the leaders of the eight state-recognized Virginia Indian tribes.
6/1/2001	Duke University	Durham, NC	The Thirteen Month Crop	$13,000.00
6/1/2001	Fairfax County Public Library	Fairfax, VA	Carrying on the Tradition	$4,600.00
6/1/2001	George Mason University	Fairfax, VA	Intellectual Life of the Schools Institute 2001	$3,000.00
6/1/2001	Network of South Asian Professionals	Washington, DC	South Asian Literary Festival 2001: Spectrum of Words	$5,000.00
6/1/2001	Norfolk State University	Norfolk, VA	Race, Time, and Place	$12,000.00	Funds to support the application of a GIS-constructed data approach

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
			-- GIS Integration		to an ongoing project documenting African-American life in the Norfolk area during the years 1860-1960.
6/1/2001	Richmond Hill, Incorporated	Richmond, VA	African-American Richmond, 1607-2001	$5,000.00	Funds to support an eight-part lecture series on Richmond's African-American history.
6/1/2001	Richmond Public Library	Richmond, VA	Views of Richmond in Fact and Fiction	$1,000.00	Funds to support a portion of the promotion costs for a ten-part series of conversations with recently published Richmond writers.
6/1/2001	River Foundation	Roanoke, VA	Fortifying the Frontier	$4,700.00	Funds to support research focusing on the role of 18th century frontier forts in the settlement of Western Virginia. This research will inform new publications and exhibits being created by Explore Park.
6/1/2001	Virginia Project Foundation	Richmond, VA	The Harrison Years Project	$3,000.00	Funds to support the costs of filming interviews, with current and former political journalists, whose recollections will contribute to a one hour documentary film on the life, career, and political legacy of Virginia Governor Albertis Harrison.
6/1/2001	W. B. Yeats Foundation	Atlanta, GA	The Scots-Irish in America	$10,000.00	Our funds in this project supported Virginia-based research, planning, and development of a final shooting script for a two-hour documentary film on the Scotch Irish in America.
6/8/2001	Ash Lawn Opera Festival	Charlottesville, VA	Seminar Weekend	$2,500.00	Funds to support a 3-day "seminar weekend" in which participants will attend three different opera performances at the Ash Lawn Summer Festival as well as four seminars designed to provide background and context for enhancing the appreciation of these performances.
7/18/2001	Arlington Foundation, Incorporated	Eastville, VA	Arlington House Exhibit	$2,500.00	Funds to support production of an exhibit, and a related publication on the archaeological and historical significance of Arlington mansion, built by John Custis II in the late 1670s on Virginia's Eastern Shore.
7/18/2001	Virginia Commonwealth University	Richmond, VA	Teaching African Literature Workshops	$2,500.00	Funds to support a series of four workshops designed to assist teachers in their efforts to integrate African literature into the classroom. The program is a follow-up to an earlier VFH-funded teachers institute on African literature held in conjunction with an international scholarly conference.
7/18/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Dickens in America Symposium, 2001	$1,200.00	Funds to support the annual Dickens Society in America Symposium, being held in Roanoke in 2001. In particular, our funds are being used to support promotion of this event to teachers.
8/29/2001	Mary Ball Washington Museum and Library	Lancaster, VA	African-American History of the Northern Neck	$2,200.00	Funds to support the first phase of a larger oral history project to document the history and contributions of African American residents of Virginia's Northern Neck -- Lancaster and Northumberland Counties.
10/2/2001	Newport News Public Library System	Newport News, VA	The Great Divide	$2,500.00	Funds to support a five-part book discussion series on "Intracism Within the Black Community."
10/3/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Storytelling and	$1,000.00	Funds to support a series of three public events that will "explore

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
			Identity		how indigenous storytelling traditions, as performed and interpreted by traditional storytellers, reveal and construct local cultural, ethnic, and gendered senses of 'place.'" They are part of this year's [2001] annual CHEW (Commonwealth Humanities Endowment Week) at Virginia Tech.
10/12/2001	Historical Society of Nelson County	Lovington, VA	Historical Societies of the Piedmont, 2002 Conference	$1,500.00	Funds to support the annual conference of historical societies in the Virginia Piedmont Region, hosted in 2002 by the Nelson County Historical Society
11/5/2001	The History Project	Washington, DC	Government Girls	$2,500.00	Funds to initiate production of a documentary television program on the experiences of young women--known as "government girls"--who came to Washington during World War II as part of the national mobilization following the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to gather oral histories from these women, many of whom now live in Northern Virginia.
12/5/2001	Eastern Shore Community College	Melfa, VA	Eastern Shore Heritage Festival	$2,100.00	Funds to support a one-day Heritage Festival celebrating the "indigenous and developing arts" of the Eastern Shore--with displays, demonstrations, and lectures that place the arts in their historical and cultural context.
12/5/2001	FOCUS of Charlottesville/Albemarle	Charlottesville, VA	Every Woman Counts	$1,000.00	Funds to support a lecture on women's contributions to American history, to be presented at a luncheon even during the celebration of Focus's 30th anniversary.
12/7/2001	Appalshop	Whitesburg, KY	From the Holler to the Hood	$8,000.00	Funds to support initial production costs for a one-hour documentary film on the impact of the prison industry on rural America, using the central Appalachian region and Southwest Virginia in particular as examples.
12/7/2001	Arlington County	Arlington, VA	Interpretive Booklet for Highview Park Community Archives	$10,000.00	No financial report required;
12/7/2001	Ash Lawn Opera Festival	Charlottesville, VA	Seminar for Educators	$2,150.00	Funds to support a teacher's institute to be held in conjunction with the Summer Opera Festival at Ash Lawn, focusing on the historical and cultural context of the works being presented during the 2002 season.
12/7/2001	Eastern Shore of Virginia Historical Society	Onancock, VA	Portrait of an Eastern Shore Family	$10,000.00	Funds to support a year-long project to preserve, accession, catalogue, transcribe, and cross-reference two collections of documents related to the history of the Eastern Shore during the 18th and 19th centuries.
12/7/2001	Ferrum College	Ferrum, VA	Southwest Virginia Early Recording History Project	$10,000.00	This was the first of the grants we awarded under the joint VFH-VCA Folklife in Virginia grant program. Our funds supported research, production of an exhibit, and a related publication exploring the lives and musical contributions of Southwest Virginia musicians who had a major impact on the nascent recording industry

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
					during the 1920s and 1930s.
12/7/2001	Friends of the Library, Floyd County	Floyd, VA	Celebrating Community in Uncertain Times	$1,900.00	Our funds in this project supported a four part lecture-discussion series loosely organized around the theme of community.
12/7/2001	Mariners' Museum	Newport News, VA	Captive Passage: The Transatlantic Slave Trade and the Making of the Americas	$15,000.00	Funds to support development and production of two versions of a study guide to accompany a major exhibition on the history and legacy of the Transatlantic Slave Trade, and to support a lecture by historian Joseph Miller in conjunction with the exhibition opening.
12/7/2001	Mary Ball Washington Museum and Library	Lancaster, VA	Closing the Gap	$8,500.00	Funds to support the collection and transcription of oral history interviews with older African American residents of the Northern Neck, as well as a related series of in-depth genealogical studies focusing on local African American families whose ancestors served in the Revolutionary War.
12/7/2001	National Preservation Institute	Alexandria, VA	Holistic Stewardship of the Historic Site	$10,000.00
12/7/2001	River Foundation	Roanoke, VA	Sifting Fact from Fiction	$3,400.00	Funds to support research and development of an integrative plan focusing on the traditional customs, skills, and practices of western Virginia's milling trade.
12/7/2001	Sweet Briar College	Sweet Briar, VA	Civil Rights and Liberties During Times of Crisis	$6,500.00	Funds to support a 4-part lecture-discussion series focusing on domestic response to the Sept. 11th terrorist attacks and their impact on individual rights.
12/7/2001	University of Mary Washington	Fredericksburg, VA	Leonardo da Vinci: Artist, Scientist, Engineer	$5,000.00	Funds to support a seven-part historic series in conjunction with an exhibit on Leonardo Da Vinci's achievements as a scientist and engineer.
12/7/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Choices and Challenges: Food Frights	$9,900.00
12/7/2001	Virginia Wesleyan College	Norfolk, VA	God and Country: Exploring the Relationship Between Religion and Nationalism	$10,000.00	Funds to support a semester-long symposium--a series of lectures and public forums--exploring the complex relationship between religion and nationalism in a variety of cultural contexts.
12/7/2001	William King Regional Arts Center	Abingdon, VA	Virginia Clothed: Commerce and Fashion Along the Great Road, 1780-1900	$7,200.00	Our funds supported the development of an exhibit and related programs, including lectures and slide shows, on the social and commercial development of Southwest Virginia during the period 1780-1900, with a particular emphasis on the textiles, dress, and other related merchandise available in retail stores in Abingdon.
12/7/2001	Wintergreen Performing Arts, Inc.	Nellysford, VA	A Community-Based Civic Dialogue	$5,200.00
12/7/2001	WVTF Public Radio	Roanoke, VA	Exploring Virginia's Literary Infrastructure	$3,500.00	Funds to support a series of radio programs examining how writers, booksellers, libraries, and other literary institutions are responding to the challenges of technology and the information age.

Date Awarded	Grantee Organization	Organization Location	Project Title	Amount Awarded	Project Description
12/12/2001	City of Fredericksburg	Fredericksburg, VA	The Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom	$2,000.00	Funds to support portions of the 225th anniversary celebration of the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom, to be held in Fredericksburg in 2002.
12/15/2001	Mathews County Land Conservancy	Mathews, VA	The Hollerith Collection Exhibit	$2,500.00	Funds to support a photographic exhibit and related publication documenting maritime life in Mathes County, which was a center of Chesapeake Bay boatbuilding and commercial activity during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Central to the exhibit is a collection of photographs taken by a prominent local resident, Herman Hollerith, whose collections is now located at the Chesapeake Bay Museum in Maryland.
12/21/2001	King William County Tercentennial Celebration Corporation	King William, VA	King William County Tercentennial	$500.00	Funds to support a Native American Village display and related demonstrations and exhibits to be presented as part of King William County's Tercentennial Celebration in April, 2002.
12/21/2001	Virginia Tech	Blacksburg, VA	Second Annual Virginia Indian Nations Summit	$2,500.00	Funds to support the second annual Virginia Indian Nations Summit at Virginia Tech, a conference designed to strengthen ties between the University, the newly established Native American Studies Program, and the eight state-recognized tribes in Virginia.